The buyer must complete standard puppy vaccinations and deworming. If the buyer fails to have a veterinarian check performed within 72 hours after receiving the puppy or fails to continue puppy vaccinations, the guarantee shall be considered null and void. If within the Examination Period, the Buyer's veterinarian finds the puppy/dog to have a serious or chronic health issue or in poor general condition making it unfit for sale, the veterinarian must provide a written statement which must be sent to the Breeder within 48 hours of the veterinary examination. 7. Buyer’s Obligations. The Buyer agrees to the following.

- a. Proper Care. The Buyer will provide good and proper care of the puppy/dog. Genetics and teething sometimes delay ears to stand up. In this case, the Buyer will be required to perform the painless procedure of “Taping” the puppy/dog’s ears to help facilitate breed characteristics. The Breeder will provide instructions and guide the Buyer when this procedure is necessary.
- d. Care to prevent Orthopedic Conditions. Orthopedic problems are caused by multiple factors including both genetic and environmental. To reduce the incidence of orthopedic problems, the Buyer will also provide the following care.
- i. Proper nutrition to support ideal growth and maintain optimum body condition making sure that the puppy/dog is not overweight or underweight.

 - iii. Avoidance of stress injuries such as not allowing the puppy/dog to jump from heights taller than itself at the shoulder. Corgis like all long-backed short-legged dogs, are prone to back injuries. Care should be taken to ensure that they are not allowed to jump from furniture or heights taller than their body height.
- e. Sale Prohibition. The Buyer is not acting as an agent in the purchase of the puppy/dog. The Buyer agrees that the puppy/dog will not be sold by or through any commercial broker or wholesale establishment, chain store, catalog sales, or pet store. - f. Restrictions of Transfer. If at any time or for any reason during the pet’s life (including upon Buyer’s death or incapacity) the Buyer needs to find a new home for the dog, the Breeder will assist with finding the puppy/dog a new home or take it back rather than see it placed in a shelter. At the Breeders’ sole election, the Buyer agrees that the puppy/dog shall be:
- (a) returned to the Breeder together with duly executed documentation transferring Buyer’s ownership interest in the puppy/dog to the Breeder at the sole expense of the Buyer, or
 - (b) rehomed by the Buyer with Breeder’s prior written approval, in each case without any refunds or payments due to the Buyer.

Buyer agrees that under no circumstances may this puppy/dog at any age be relinquished to an animal shelter or rescue organization.

- g. No transfer Outside of the United States. The Buyer further agrees that the puppy/dog will not be sold to anyone residing outside of the United States without the Breeder's written approval.
- h. Breach by Buyer. The Buyer's breach of any of the foregoing obligations shall result in the Breeder's warranties set forth in this Agreement being null and void.
8. Breeding Rights. The Breeder acknowledges that the puppy/dog is being sold as a breeding prospect and represents that, at the time of sale, the puppy/dog shows promise of being worthy of being bred as an adult at the time of sale. If such veterinarian finds the puppy/dog to be a victim of ill-treatment, abuse, cruelty or neglect,
- (a) the Breeder has the right to possession and ownership of the puppy/dog. Buyer agrees to transfer possession and ownership of the puppy/dog to Breeder and that all registration documents will be transferred into Breeder's name by Buyer. Buyer agrees that the transfer of the puppy/dog and registration documents is at the sole expense of Buyer, and Buyer also agrees to the terms of Paragraph 14 below.

Neither party may assign, transfer, or subcontract any obligations or rights under this Agreement without prior written consent of the other party. No changes, modification, or waivers to this Agreement will be effective unless in writing and signed by both parties. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is determined to be illegal or unenforceable, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement shall otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable.
